

EMERGENCY RENTAL ASSISTANCE

What You Need to Know About the Emergency Rental Assistance Program

Sponsored by the Alameda County Bar Association (ACBA) and the California Lawyers Association

Do you know how to help your clients navigate the Emergency Rental Assistance Program? Whether you represent landlords or tenants, whether this is a big part of your practice or just an occasional sideline, it will be key to understand how to get 100% of rental debt owed due to Covid paid by the government. Come and learn from the experts, and make sure you are taking advantage of this resource (and complying with AB 832).

Date:

August 17, 2021
1:00 PM - 2:00 PM

Cost:

FREE

Credits:

1 hour general CLE credit

RSVP:

<https://www.acbanet.org/event/?backcaltype=g&month=1&yr=2021&eventid=15589>

Online registration closes the day before the event. If you have trouble registering, please contact the Membership Coordinator at membershipassistant@acbanet.org.

SPEAKERS:

Jessica Hayes is the Disaster Recovery Branch Chief, and leads the Disaster Recovery team for the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

Philip J. Laird is the Deputy General Counsel for the Business, Consumer Services and Housing Agency.